Reveille

The familiar people and places of Kenyon, presented as we remember them . . .

Dedication . . .

Donald McCabe Gretzer

James Roll Browne

The past year has been one full of sound and fury, of events which were once remote, but now are close at hand. The departures of James Roll Browne and Donald McCabe Gretzer for the service of our country have increased our awareness of the demanding situation. To these two men the 1942 Reveille is respectfully dedicated, in homage of their sacrifice for our country.

The function of each Reveille has been to give the year's relationships established among Kenyon men. Our aim is to portray the life at Kenyon as it exists today.

SENIOR COUNCIL

This organization, consisting of one senior from each fraternity division, two from Middle Kenyon, is charged with maintaining order and discipline on all College property. By means of a judicious application of fines, the Council keeps a lawless campus under control. When not engaged in spanking the boys, the Senior Council supervises the Assembly elections and the Freshman-Sophomore activities.

THE KENYON ASSEMBLY

The Kenyon College Assembly, founded in 1895 and composed of all the undergraduate members of the College, is the corporate organization of the student body. Its general purpose is to work in harmony with the administrative officers for the good of Kenyon as a whole, to conduct all purely student affairs, and to regulate all matters within its jurisdiction that may be referred to it by the President or by the Faculty. The Assembly directs student government, maintains law and order in the college, and manages all athletic, musical, literary, and social undertakings.

This year's president has been Jack Lindberg. The vice-president assisting him has been Wayne Borges, and the secretary, Newton Bakley.

CLASS OF NINETEEN FORTY-TWO

The Junior Class at Kenyon College evidently should be rather anonymous, as it elects no officers, has no function other than to edit the yearbook. Usually it is not, and becomes almost obnoxious towards the end of the year, when honors are heaped upon the individual members for the next year, and the realization dawns that they will be seniors the following year, maybe.

BEXLEY HALL

On October 23rd, 1859, the cornerstone was laid for the third college building on Gambier Hill. To Bishop McIlvaine the occasion was more than the beginning of a new building. It was the reward of his efforts to provide a separate building for the theological department of Kenyon College.

The site selected for the building, to be named Bexley Hall after Bexley, who had given generously to both Bishop Chase and to Bishop McIlvaine, was at the extreme northern end of Middle Path, a location chosen by Bishop Chase as the site of the Theological building which he hoped to erect in the course of time.

In 1902, Mrs. Lavinia C. Colburn erected a building to house the theological library, which previously had occupied cramped quarters on the second floor of Bexley Hall.

In 1913 the renovation of Bexley Hall was begun. The original plan had provided a large room for the chapel and the library on the second floor. In the nineties the chapel was moved to the northwest corner of the first floor, and during the remodeling of 1913 the Chapel of St. Mary was provided.

Originally, Kenyon College, under the name of "The Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio," was intended to be the preparatory department of the divinity school, which gained its name from Bexley Hall. But in 1890, Kenyon College, as we know it today, had outgrown the divinity school, and so the two were separated. Each has its separate faculty and dean, but both are under the supervision of the President of the College. The separation has been advantageous to both parts of the college, as each may devote itself to its determined purpose.

THEOLOGICAL CLASS

Engaging in some of the intramural athletics, eating in the Commons, the Bexley students are as much a part of Kenyon life as are any other students.

These three members of the faculty, at first glance a seemingly innocuous group, are in reality taking an active part in planning the next couple of years for Kenyon students. Messrs. McGowan, Coffin, and Ashford constitute the registration board for Kenyon College. One can't be exactly certain why Mr. Ashford is smiling, but possibly he has swallowed a mouse. Or is just playing with one.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Since 1776, when Phi Beta Kappa was founded at William and Mary College, election to Phi Beta Kappa has been a recognition of intellectual capacities well employed, especially in the acquiring of an education in the liberal arts and sciences. Admission to its ranks may reasonably be held to indicate also potentialities of future distinction.

This year its members are: Richard Warman, Delta Phi; Frederick Holt, Phi Kappa Sigma; Robert Myers, Alpha Delta Phi; Beverley McPherson, Delta Tau Delta; Hallock Hoffman, Delta Tau Delta; Newton Bakley, Delta Tau Delta.

ALPHA PI KAPPA

Alpha Pi Kappa, Senior honorary society, was established at Kenyon in 1931. Its membership includes men who have attained prominence in college activities, and popularity upon the campus. Membership in this society has become one of the greater honors that a man may receive at Kenyon. A Junior is chosen at the end of each year to carry on the policies of the organization for the following years.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee is the representative financial organization of each division on the Hill. Meeting once a month, the members of this committee endeavor to account for the financial appropriations of the extra-curricular activities, such as Reveille, Collegian, Hika, Singers, and the dances. In addition, this body also assists the Intramural Board in athletic affairs, and directs the athletic policy of the school.

Members of this group are: Walter Volkmar, Morris Loving, Howard Graham, Frederick Holt, Earl Walbridge, Lewis Treleaven, LeRoy Listug, Wayne Borges, and Sam Curtis.

INTRAMURAL BOARD

A predominant number of Kenyon students owes its athletic life to the Intramural Board. Those of us who do not participate in varsity sports are offered a large and various selection of intramural sports, ranging from touch football to billiards. The Board is one of the most active organizations on the Hill, doing a most creditable job.

Its members are John Reinheimer, Dick Penn, Bruce Bothwell, Dick Eckley, Walt Elder, Bud Listug, chairman, Jack McCoy, and Bob Hurst.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The class officers for this year have been Dick Stevens, John Albach, and Sammy Curtis. What these men do is somewhat of a mystery, even to them, but it's nice to have their picture.

PHILOMETHESIAN

Philomethesian has grown in two years from an almost non-existent society to one of large size. Newton Bakley has evidently done a grand job as president. The ancient rivalry with Nu Pi Kappa is returning, but we have yet to see the joint debate which the two societies used to undertake.

HIKA

If the Reveille Staff were going to send orchids to anyone but itself, it would certainly consign them to Robie Macauley and staff. These men have done everything possible to make Hika one of the most outstanding of American colleges' literary publications, and in so doing have continued the tradition of excellence established some years ago. Kyrie, Hika!

In the picture are: Herb Long, Fred Barry, John Allen, Ralph King, Howie Ammerman, Bill Lane, Ben Roselle, Ken Knopf, Tom Green, Edward Chamberlain, Paul Herrick, Bud Southard, Robie Macauley, Bob Weaver, and Sam Cook.

REVEILLE

The aim of succeeding Reveille staffs has changed considerably during this century. "Looking over some old annuals," we have noticed that the trend has been towards more and more informality. Up to just a few years ago, Reveille was more of a magazine, publishing short stories and poems. Now that has been eliminated, and in its place has come a pictorial revue of the year attempting to show Kenyon students as they really are. If we have succeeded in conveying this atmosphere we shall have accomplished what we set out to do. If there is criticism, and there will be, for no one can please all, the following Reveille staffs will work with it in mind.

Members of the staff are: James Logan, business manager; Bill Lunn, Bob Pennington, Walt Elder, Ken Kingery, advertising manager; Lindsey Van Vlissingen, editor; Bob Weaver, Bruce Bothwell, Bill Vandenberg, Scott Morrill. Howie Graham and Charles MacKinley, preceding editors, were also of assistance in advisory capacity.

COLLEGIAN

Using an old Kenyon phrase quite sincerely, this year the Collegian is better than ever. First under Donald McCleary, this semester under John Goldsmith, the college paper has come to represent collegiate thought and activities more successfully than in the past. An enlargement of the sports page and a more strict adherence to news interesting to the student has done much towards making it a very good newspaper.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA

Tau Kappa Alpha was founded at Kenyon in 1936. It is the only national forensic fraternity which is a member in the Association of College Honor Societies, a group of the most select college honor fraternities. The membership of Tau Kappa Alpha is limited to men who display general forensic abilities.

The fifth annual Tau Kappa Alpha Speech Contest was won by Psi Upsilon.

This year's members are John Tehan, Newton Bakley, and Donald McCleary. The group's advisors are Dr. Black and Eric Hawke.

PRE-MEDICAL CLUB

Developing into a very ambitious organization under the scalpel of Dr. Drake, the Pre-Med Club has held many meetings this year. Pictures have been viewed, and a couple of trips have been taken to Mt. Vernon's hospitals.

DEBATE CLUB

This year the varsity Debate team has taken part in almost fifty debates. At the Ohio Debate Conference, with nineteen schools participating, the Kenyon Debate team took fourth place. It has debated against Earlham, Ohio U., Bluffton, Denison, Wooster, Oberlin, and Ohio Wesleyan, to name just a few.

The freshman Debate team has done equally well, winning two and losing one at the Conference. Considering everything, the Debate Club has had a very good year.

HILL PLAYERS

Members of the Hill Players this year are: Bud Loving, Bill Sawyer, Bud Mast, and Chase Small. Advisors are Eric Hawke and Dr. Black.

The men elected to this club have shown exceptional dramatic ability. Election to the Hill Players is the highest honor paid to a Kenyon actor.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

This year the Photography Club has, to quote its members, "done a great deal of nothing." Some of the men have contributed to Reville and Collegian, while others have acted in an advisory capacity.

Its members are: Charles Amato, Bob Schaefer, Jack Welty, John Timmermeister, Frazier Ford, Bud O'Brien, Halleck Hoffman, Burt Legg, Bob Pringle, and Ed Chamberlain.

ART CLASS

This year the Art Class has given various exhibits in Nu Pi Hall, the latest one on May 12. Under the direction of Mr. Rahming, classes and instruction have been held for faculty and students alike. Pictured here is a section of the class at work in Chase Tower.

THE KENYON SINGERS

Under the direction of E. C. Weist, the Kenyon Singers have had a most successful season. Joint concerts have been held with Western College for Women, and with the Flora Stone Mather girls, from Western Reserve. The annual concert for the school was in conjunction with the latter choir. An informal concert was held in Nu Pi Hall on April 21, and another concert was given at Dublin, Ohio, April 28.

CHOIR

More interest has been shown this year in the Choir than in any other past year. Attendance has been much more regular, and the quality of the singing has bettered a great deal. In addition to its regular Sunday morning services, it also gave a Christmas Carol program.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Probably due to international conditions this year, this organization has restricted itself to informal group discussions. This condition has resulted in a rather chaotic study curriculum, with not a great deal accomplished. The club was represented at the Ohio Valley Regional Conference of International Relations Clubs, and also at the Tri-State Conference.

Its members are Henry Meyer, Bob Hance, Bill Vandenberg, Jack Welty, Donald McCleary, Dixon Hunt, Ed Clarke, and Bob Schaefer. Its faculty advisor is Dr. Cahall.

KENYON KLAN

The Klan is composed of those men who have made varsity letters, and who have met the scholastic requirements of the organization. The Klan has two main functions; to be host on the annual Dad's Day, and to further all forms of athletics at Kenyon. The Klan is headed by Dick Stevens, led by Rudy Cutler, and advised by Drs. Bumer and Ashford.

THE RIDING AND POLO CLUB

The Kenyon Polo Club was formed in 1936 to promote a college Polo Team. In 1937 and 1938 Kenyon's Polo Team was nationally known. Discontinued in 1939, the Polo Team has re-formed this year and participated in several intercollegiate matches.

The Riding Club, formed of students and faculty alike, is instructed by Captain Eberle. The students participate in the intramural riding contest, which is designed to follow along the lines of the Club.

MOTION PICTURE COMMITTEE

The motion picture committee has presented fifteen outstanding pictures this year. In addition to these feature movies there have been very good shorts, together with records. Making available a season ticket, the committee has boosted the attendance possibilities a great deal.

Pictures of the year have been, "Union Pacific," "Honey-moon in Bali," "The Cat and the Canary," "Jamaica," "Beau Geste," "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Pygmalion," "Northwest Passage," "Goodbye Mr. Chips," "Ninotchka," "Congo Maisie," "The Mortal Storm," "Susan and God," "The Women," and "I Love You Again."

AERONAUTICS CLUB

The Flying Club, as it is popularly known, has been greatly handicapped in the second semester of this year by the loss of Don Gretzer, its instructor and advisor. With Halleck Hoffman as president, however, it has continued to compete in both the Midwest Meet and the meet preceding the National Inter-Collegiate Flying Club Conference, held in Detroit. At this meeting Bill Cuthbert was elected president of the N. I. F. C., and Burt Legg was elected to its Executive Council. With two privately owned planes, a Stinson 105 and a Kinner Playboy, the Club has had additional opportunities to fly.

RYEBUCK SOCIETY

The five year old "Ryebucks Forever" group grabbed the bull by the horn, took a reef in their "elegant" manner, and the wind blew in a heap of responsibility. The customary unsteady characteristics were steadied when this well-mannered band of die-hard conservatives, in conjunction with the Senior Council, acted in the official capacity of Host for the Fall and Spring Dances. This strict group of disciplinarians, it is said, gave the Dances the air of dignity which only the Ryebucks can do; as you can see by the style of attire in the picture.

The absence of the faculty must necessarily be excused. Ryebuck Thornton was over in the lab performing some Ryebuck experimentation with formaldehyde; Ryebuck Eberle was abed with a headache—he had attended a Ryebuck tea the day before; Ryebuck Gretzer was called by the government; Ryebuck Ashford was administering some rubbing alcohol to some of the track men.

FENCING CLUB

This year the Fencing Club has deteriorated. The one match which it had, with Oberlin, it lost. After that, due to difficulty in scheduling matches, it was dissolved by mutual agreement.

This year finds the birth of a new and rugged sport on the Kenyon varsity list. The Pioneers, as Ohio newspapermen call the Lacrosse team, have engaged in three matches, coming out victorious in two of them, beaten in the third by a far more experienced team from the Gow School.

The stickmen got their own equipment, their own games, and paid their own way. A trip to Oberlin and one to Ann Arbor netted the midwest championship. Lacrosse has evidently come to stay at Kenyon as one of the most popular of the varsity sports.

FRONT ROW: Benseman, Legg, Lane, Weaver, Poynter, Long.
MISSING: Chamberlain, Davis, Smeeth, Early, Kohnstamm, Ross.
